"Despite the lower rate, em in probably earn as much or an under existing conditions than under existing conditions. The 40-hour minimum wage with its basic eight-hour day has demonstrated positively during the two years that it has been in effect that it results in decreased weekly carnings. The adjustment should enable employes to average 48 hours wages per week, and their earnings will compare favorably with the carnings in other industries."

"The values of our raw materials, meat and by-products have suffered the most severe decline ever experienced," said the ainouncement by Swith & Company, "Our expenses of doing business are still at the war level. BLACKMAIL CHARGE,

The story common in Ardmore is that during the afternoon preceding the evening of the shooting. Hamon was in his offices opposite the Hotel Randel, where he and Clara Hamon were living.

Friends were with him, and fre-quently he was called to the telephone. The conversation indicated that several of these calls came from the same Person but not Clara Hamon. Once Hamon is said to have shouted: "You damned blackmailer, I know oves why you are in town."

Then he slammed the receiver the hook in great anger.

Little has been hinted as to the possible identity of the telephone caller, but it is believed the state may attempt to show that Clara Hamon, facing a parting forever with the man who had decided to go back to his wife and children, might have been inspired by this mysterious caller accidentially.

But Clara Hamon since then has admitted she shot Hamon, claiming it was done in self-defense.

To this day, however, no formal dec-

BIG QUESTION.

This is the outstanding question as the trial draws near.

Even should they say Hamon privately told them Clara Hamon shot him, and shot him under such circumstances as the state charges, yet there is doubt whether their testimony would be admissible, for it would have to be made legally plain that Hamon knew he was dying when he made any such statement.

It is generally belloved that the men named will relate a hitherto unheard account of Hamon's version of the shooting and that the men hamon would be admissible, for it would have to be made legally plain that Hamon knew he was dying when he made any such statement.

The entire movement was effected in a way to obviate, so far as possible, a show of force, but the French and the British Rhine flotilias were prepared for eventualities.

MESSAGE TO PEOPLE.
After the occupation of Duesseldorf, General de Goutte issued a proclemation to its people in which he declared the occupation was not a measure of hostility against the population but one intended to compet the government of Gormany to carry out its obligations. No obstacle would be raised against the carrying on of the economic life of the region, he declared, and the allied authorities were ready to aid the workers in improving their condition, especially as regarded provisioning.

RECITION ADVANCE. BRITISH ADVANCE,

The three cities aunounced for occupation are Dusseldorf, Duisberg and Ruhrort, lying along the Rhine, commercial ports into which flow the traffic of the Ruhr iron region. These cities adjoin the British zone of occupation at Cologne. The American zone is at Coblenz, 75 miles farther south and the French zone at Mayence, another 75 miles south. LONDON, March 8.—Orders for the advance of British troops upon Dussel-lorf were issued at the British war office last night, it was reported today. There are 12,000 British soldiers in Germany, of which 4,000 are in upper Silesia. It is believed the Rhine forces will be reinforced to number 12,000.
